Update on trespass notice procedure:
C. Kujawa spoke with the Bismarck City Attorney and was told her office is creating guidelines regarding trespass situations. A letter will be sent to Mrs. Mattson regarding the status of her request.

In the Director’s report C. Kujawa reported:
• Boiler replacement-
  o Installation and insulation have been completed. $130,000 will be paid through the donation budget as designated, and the remaining $9,900 will be paid through the library budget.

• Exterior sculptureo Scott Bina reported that Mann Signs, Inc. plans to deliver and install the sculpture tomorrow morning.

• Missouri River Room updates-
  o The carpet was removed, new carpet installed, with some of the art and furniture being returned to the room. The invoice from Interiors By Design for $9,975.88 was paid through the donations budget.
  o Tom Baker related items were given to Bismarck city administration to display appropriately in the Tom Baker room. Some historic Bismarck framed pieces are now on display in the city building.

• East-side window coveringso The 6th Street window covering project, funded by Friends of the Bismarck Public Library, is complete. An article will be featured in the November library newsletter as well as a press release to the media and posts to social media.

• Restroom renovation-o C. Kujawa contacted City of Bismarck Facilities Manager Bruce Schirado to request assistance to publish an RFP for architecture services for this project. Services would include creating floor plans and designs and handling the RFP process for construction bids.

• Other-
  o Artist Walter Piehl delivered the commissioned art piece on Tuesday October 24; he plans to return next week to discuss mounting and display of the piece. C. Kujawa will organize a reception, with the date depending upon W. Piehl’s availability.
