Curly black hair just past her ears, brown eyes

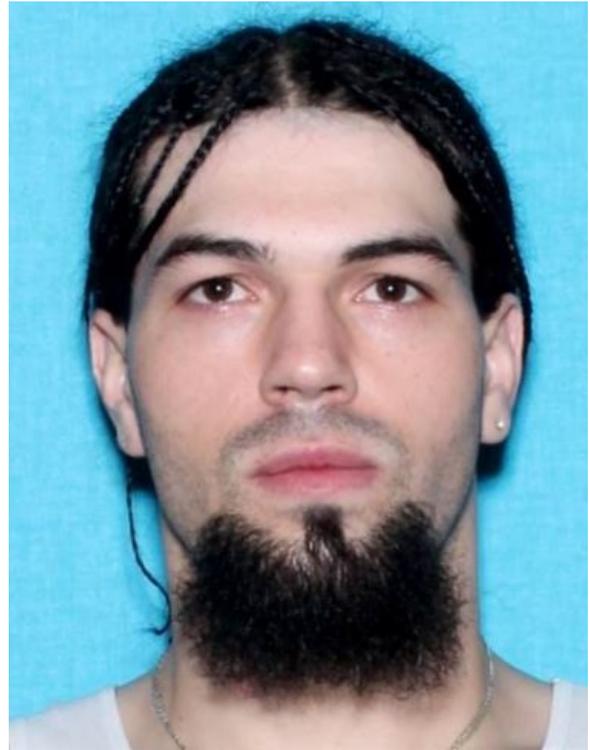

LeahMae Dawn Morsette

LeahMae Dawn Morsette, 7 months old, was discovered to be missing by police around 9:00 p.m. tonight, June 24th, 2019. She was last seen on video surveillance with her mother in the 300 Block of West Arbor Ave around 1:00 a.m. in the morning.

LeahMae is described as a Native American female with curly black hair just past her ears and brown eyes. She is believed to be wearing a tan button up onesie with shorts over the top or a magenta shirt with pink shorts.

LeahMae's mother was arrested this evening and was unable to provide information as to her whereabouts or who she may be with.

If anyone has any information on where LeahMae is, they are asked to call the Bismarck Police Department at (701) 223-1212 or your local law enforcement agency.

Cole Lee Pfaff, 31 years old

Bismarck Police are actively searching for 7 month old, LeahMae Dawn Morsette, who was discovered to be missing by police around 9:00 p.m on June 24th, 2019.

At this time, we have reason to believe the mother may have left LeahMae in the care of Cole Lee Pfaff, 31 years old. His whereabouts are currently unknown and we are asking for the public's assistance to locate Cole.

LeahMae could possibly be in a stroller with an infant car seat and have a blue and white unicorn diaper bag with her.

We are also asking that anyone in the area of the 300 Blk of W Arbor Ave that has outdoor surveillance to please review their video starting around 1:00 a.m. on June 23rd, 2019.

If anyone has any information on where LeahMae is, they are asked to call the Bismarck Police Department at (701) 223-1212 or your local law enforcement agency.
